

Engagements

In continuation with the above, the Committee on Social Inclusion and Participative Democracy takes on the following general commitments within the framework of United Cities and Local Governments:

- To contribute to stimulating critical thinking and political debate on poverty, inequality and social exclusion, and to define concrete proposals and actions that lead to the design of local policies on social inclusion.
- To disseminate the most exceptional policies on social inclusion and strengthen democracy among local governments, and to facilitate the exchange of experiences and expertise among cities around the world.
- To maintain a political dialogue with social movements and transnational networks of the Global Social Forum through the Forum of Local Authorities.
