

Right to the City and the International Agendas: African realities and perspectives

Open Session, November 22nd 2018

Programme

President: Mayor of Pikine, Senegal

Moderator: Amanda Flety, UCLG and Bachir Kanoute, Enda

Rapporteur: Daniel Nonze (ASSOAL, Cameroun) & Fana Sihlongonyane (CUBES, South Africa).

What is the Right to the City to you?

(1,5h) 60min questions to the 5 speakers by the moderator, 30min debate with the audience.

- 1- Mayor of Pikine
- 2- Mayor of Tunis
- 3- Allan Cain (Development Workshop Angola) - allan.cain@gmail.com
- 4- Fana Sihlongonyane (Center for Urbanism and Built Environment Studies (CUBES), South Africa) - Mfaniseni.Sihlongonyane@wits.ac.za
- 5- Sandrine Capelle-Manuel (Cities Alliance) - SCapelle-Manuel@citiesalliance.org

How to achieve cities that are free of discrimination (gender, religion, refugees, LGBTBI) and guarantee the right to housing?

(1,5h) 40min presentations by the 2 mayors (1 per topic), 40min debate with the audience, 40min recommendations moving forward by the 3 remaining speakers.

- 1- Mayor of Bangangté
- 2- 1st VP of the Prefecture of Rabat and Councillor of Rabat
- 3- Cathérine Maliedje (CODAS Douala, Cameroun) - djilacathy@yahoo.fr
- 4- Frederick Kusambiza (Planact, South Africa) - fredkusambiza@planact.org.za
- 5- Malick Gaye (ENDA, Senegal) - assmalickgaye@yahoo.fr

Pearranged audience interventions: Federico Poitiers (GAATES) - federico.poitier@gaates.org